FICTIONAL DEMO — NOT A REAL PATIENT RECORD

PathwayAI | My visit summary

Reported by: Myself

Patient/caregiver statements for review; not a diagnosis or test interpretation.

EXPOSURE AND CARE TIMELINE

Possible exposure: place and date: June

Tick bite: what you observed: I found a tick in Dutchess County, New York, in June.

When the tick was found or removed: I found a tick in Dutchess County, New York, in June.

When symptoms began / time after exposure: Two weeks later I developed a rash and fever.

Rash or skin changes: appearance and timing: Two weeks later I developed a rash and fever.

Symptoms and how long they lasted: Two weeks later I developed a rash and fever.

Tests: name, date and reported result: My blood test was positive.

Diagnosis date or delay, if reported: It took four months to get a diagnosis.

Care received and clinicians seen: Not reported

QUESTIONS TO CLARIFY

- Are symptom duration and time to diagnosis different? Confirm what each time period describes.
- Confirm missing dates, tick/removal details and rash timing; not reported does not mean No.
- Bring the original laboratory report to confirm the test name, date and result.

MY QUESTIONS AND CORRECTIONS

Add your questions or corrections here.

MY ORIGINAL NOTES (FOR CROSS-CHECKING)

I found a tick in Dutchess County, New York, in June. Two weeks later I developed a rash and fever. My blood test was positive. It took four months to get a diagnosis. In the past 30 days, I paid $180 for medical care and $45 for travel. I missed 3 workdays. My unpaid caregiver spent 8 hours helping me. I need help with medical bills.

Bring a medication list if available. No dates or clinical conclusions have been inferred.

ILLUSTRATIVE HOUSEHOLD BURDEN

Reporting period: Past 30 days

Money paid for care: $180

Travel spending: $45

Recorded spending total: $225

Workdays missed: 3

Unpaid caregiving: 8 hours

Workdays and caregiving hours remain separate from spending.

NEXT CONVERSATION

Ask the provider about fees, coverage and financial assistance.

Keep original test reports for the clinician to review.

This fictional sample is not a benefits determination or clinical validation.